Claus Erhard

Lawyer

Claus Erhard is part of our team since 2019.

He completed his law degree at Ludwig-Maximilians-Universität, Munich, among the best students of his year. During his traineeship at the Higher Regional Court in Munich, Claus worked for an international commercial law firm.

He was admitted to the bar in 2018. Prior to focusing on criminal law, he worked for a renowned law firm in the area of media law. In particular, he represented an international media group in the areas of information technology law, data protection law and competition law. During that time, Claus successfully completed the training for Accredited Specialist Lawyers in Information Technology Law (IT Law).

Furthermore, and non-law-related, Claus had already started his own company specializing in software development and system administration as early as during his time in university.

Claus Erhard defends and advises clients in all areas of criminal law, mainly in business criminal law. His professional experience allows him to specialize in cases with technical background, in IT criminal law and in connection with IT forensics.

Claus Erhard speaks German and English.
