Florian Opper

Lawyer and Accredited Specialist Lawyer for Criminal Law
Salary Partner

Before being admitted as a lawyer, Florian Opper spent five years working as a public prosecutor in a department of Munich Public Prosecutor's Office specialised in white collar crime. He then went on to work as a criminal law judge in the field of white collar crime and narcotics criminal law.

Florian decided to go to private practice and has worked as a lawyer and counsel since 2016. Drawing on his previous experience in the judiciary, he focuses primarily on white collar crime and has also built up expertise in both tax and medical criminal law. Besides this, Florian also takes on cases from other areas of criminal law.

Florian completed his law degree at Julius Maximilian University of Würzburg, where he specialised in commercial and European law. He then went on to work as a legal research assistant at the Chair for German and European Business and Corporate Law at Würzburg University and as a research assistant in a specialised commercial law firm in Würzburg.

He completed his junior legal training in Würzburg and then went on to do an elective internship in the legal department of an international automobile manufacturing corporation in Munich.

Florian is a visiting lecturer for Business Criminal Law at Hochschule Fresenius, University of Applied Sciences.
