Dr. Maximilian Heim

Lawyer and Accredited Specialist Lawyer for Criminal Law
Salary Partner

Ever since his admission to the bar, Maximilian Heim has advised in the field of criminal law. He specializes in commercial and tax criminal law and has a strong focus on breach of trust and corruption offenses. Furthermore, Maximilian is very experienced in the defense of allegations in connection with damaging company incidents.

He studied law from 2006 - 2012 at the Ludwig-Maximilians-University in Munich, specializing in "criminal justice, criminal defense and prevention". From 2008, he worked as a research assistant for the Munich University under Prof. Dr. Dr. h.c. Klaus Volk at the Chair for Criminal Law, Business Criminal Law and Criminal Procedure Law. During his legal traineeship which he completed at the Munich Higher Regional Court (OLG), Maximilian worked for the boutique criminal law firm Lohberger & Leipold and specialized in commercial and tax criminal law.

He qualified as a lawyer in 2014 and started his career at Lohberger & Leipold where he remained until 2020. Maximilian soon gained extensive experience in prominent cases and the defense and representation of both individuals and companies. With a thesis on breach of trust, he was awarded a PhD in commercial criminal law in 2016. He has been an accredited specialist lawyer for criminal law since 2019.

Maximilian has been a salary partner at BEUKELMANN | MÜLLER | PARTNER Rechtsanwälte mbB since January 2021.

Maximilian is a permanent author of the criminal law section in the NJW-Spezial, the enclosure to the major legal publication in Germany.

Maximilian Heim speaks German and English.
